

Lead Teacher Job Announcement

West Harlem Head Start preschool operates from a team teaching model which encourages and expects all members of the classroom team to become active participants in planning and implementing the curriculum. Each member of the team has four major roles:

- To be a role model for children.
- To be a source of security, and affection for all children.
- To be an active participant in planning activities for the children and in carrying them out.
- To help children handle conflict using positive discipline techniques.

The Lead Teacher is at the forefront of the classroom teaching team. The Group Teacher is primarily responsible for implementing and planning a program which adheres to all federal guidelines, Head Start Performance Standard and local Head Start policies in providing children and families with Head Start services.
